Composer Tim's Brady's 2 recent recordings for the USA-based Starkland Records have both been nominated for "best recording of the year" in the PRIX OPUS prizes, a major arts prize in Québec, organized by the Conseil québécois de la musique for over 2 decades.

The Bradyworks recording "Music for Large Ensemble" is nominated in the category of "Best modern/contemporary recording, while the album "The Happiness Handbook", by the guitar quartet Instruments of Happiness, is nominated in the category "Best recording - musique actuelle".

Both albums recently won Global Music Awards in the USA.

The awards ceremony will take place on January 19, 2020, in Montréal.
